Posted by Dennis Sellers ■ Nov 1, 2007 at 3:48pm

Sena Cases has revealed a new line of leather cases for Apple's new iPod line-up. iPod touch cases are available in an array of colors. The Premium Stand (shown) is designed to let the iPod touch stand freely for video viewing.

The UltraSlim case offers a protection in a slim design, while the Elegia Pouch offers a shock-absorbent design to shelter the device during travel. Other cases include LeatherSkin, a form-fitting leather case, and the MagnetFlipper, which utilizes gravity and a magnetic flip closure for armor. Prices for the iPod touch cases range from US$26 to $52.

iPod classic cases are available for both the 80GB and 160GB models. Styles include: the Dockable, which allows the case to remain on when docking the device; Premium Stand, a self-standing case making hands-free video watching a breeze; and the MagnetFlipper, a magnetic flip cover case that protects operating controls. All are $50.

The UltraSlim case for the 3G iPod nano offers a slim presentation and is priced at $18.
