jo malone candles

The packaging is so pretty it's a struggle to take the candles out of the box. With scents that tantalize the senses (like Lime Basil and Mandarin), the candles are the perfect "mood setters" for a first date at home.

MOR

An exquisite line of products for any glamour puss, MOR has deliciously fragranced body lotions, body polish, soaps and perfumes. ## sena cases

sangria

The simplicity of making this fabulous Spanish traditional drink from scratch is half the appeal. For the next pool party, this elixir is a must. Buy lots of cheap wine, empty it into a pitcher, add some carbonated orange juice (we prefer Orangina), get some frozen berries (keeps it colder), stir it all together and serve.

californian at town center

The luxury high-rise will be nestled in the northeast corner of Anton Boulevard and Avenue of the Arts and the first of its kind in the neighborhood, creating a 250-unit condominium community. A few of the many amenities include a sky pool and terrace.
